

Physical Development

- *Using playdough to make cakes
- *Make firework dances
- *Respond to music from different festivals
- *Make junk models to represent fireworks
- *Develop fine motor skills
- * Shape clay diva lamps (Diwali)
- *Cutting out poppies

Communication and Language

- *Retell festival stories- eg Diwali, Christmas
- *Talking about artefacts from different festivals- developing vocab
- *Talking Tables
- *Stories and rhymes from celebrations

Literacy

- *T4W- Goldilocks and the Three Bears- (Goldilocks to prepare a party for the three bears) - song "when goldilocks.."
- *Invitations
- *Writing and making cards
- *Nonfiction books
- *Shopping lists for ingredients for a party

Personal, Social and Emotional Development

- *Bonfire Night safety
- *Talking about how we celebrate special events as a family- family traditions
- *Circle time- how are we the same/different
- *Share foods
- *Remembrance Day (cbeebies)

Understanding The World

- *Celebrating festivals- our experiences and those of our friends
- *Sensory experiences of the changing environment- Autumn - plant bulbs for Spring
- *Making foods to celebrate different festivals
- *Scooping pumpkins
- *Christmas cookies (observe change) - spices / tuff tray / playdough

Maths- Number

- *Ordering birthday cards-
- *Counting and matching number and amount- e.g candles on a cake
- *Number rhymes linked to celebrations - 12 days of Christmas

Roary's 3 Let's Celebrate Autumn Term

Maths- Shape, Space and Measure

- Measure ingredients while baking
- Shape fireworks

Expressive Arts and Design

- *Songs and rhymes related to celebrations
- *Firework pictures-using printing/found materials/chalk
- *Making cakes- playdough
- * Rangoli patterns - Diwali