

School Policy Information

Selby CP school is a Unicef Rights Respecting School.

Children Rights come from the United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child. (UNCRC)

Article 3 states " the best interests of the child must be a top priority in all things that affect children."

At our school the best interests of the child are at the heart of our policies.

This document serves to provide an overview of our school policies and the key articles from the convention that relate to specific policies.

As policies come up for review the relevant articles will be included in the main body of the policies.

All policies are written in consultation with staff, governors and children.

Article 12 " Every child has the right to say what they think in all matters affecting them, and to have their views taken seriously."

Policies:

Acceptable Internet

Article 3 (best interests of the child)

The best interests of the child must be a top priority in all things that affect children.

Adoption

Article 3 (best interests of the child)

The best interests of the child must be a top priority in all things that affect children.

Agency Workers

Article 3 (best interests of the child)

The best interests of the child must be a top priority in all things that affect children.

Article 19 (protection from all forms of violence)

Governments must do all they can to ensure that children are protected from all forms of violence, abuse, neglect and bad treatment by their parents or anyone else who looks after them.

Behaviour Policy

Article 3 (best interests of the child)

The best interests of the child must be a top priority in all things that affect children.

Article 12 (respect for the views of the child)

Every child has the right to say what they think in all matters affecting them, and to have their views taken seriously.

Article 19 (protection from all forms of violence)

Governments must do all they can to ensure that children are protected from all forms of violence, abuse, neglect and bad treatment by their parents or anyone else who looks after them.

Child Protection

Article 3 (best interests of the child)

The best interests of the child must be a top priority in all things that affect children.

Article 12 (respect for the views of the child)

Every child has the right to say what they think in all matters affecting them, and to have their views taken seriously.

Article 19 (protection from all forms of violence)

Governments must do all they can to ensure that children are protected from all forms of violence, abuse, neglect and bad treatment by their parents or anyone else who looks after them.

Article 20 (children deprived of a family)

If a child cannot be looked after by their family, governments must make sure that they are looked after properly by people who respect the child's religion, culture and language.

Collective Worship

Article 14 (freedom of thought, belief and religion)

Every child has the right to think and believe what they want and also to practise their religion, as long as they are not stopping other people from enjoying their rights. Governments must respect the rights of parents to give their children information about this right.

Creative Curriculum

Article 29 (goals of education)

Education must develop every child's personality, talents and abilities to the full. It must encourage the child's respect for human rights, as well as respect for their parents, their own and other cultures, and the environment.

Curriculum

Article 29 (goals of education)

Education must develop every child's personality, talents and abilities to the full. It must encourage the child's respect for human rights, as well as respect for their parents, their own and other cultures, and the environment.

Educational Visits

Article 31 (leisure, play and culture)

Every child has the right to relax, play and take part in a wide range of cultural and artistic activities.

E-Safety

Article 4 (protection of rights)

Governments must do all they can to make sure every child can enjoy their rights.

EYFS Policy

Article 3 (best interests of the child)

The best interests of the child must be a top priority in all things that affect children.

Food Policy

Article 24 (health and health services)

Every child has the right to the best possible health. Governments must provide good quality health care, clean water, nutritious food and a clean environment so that children can stay healthy. Richer countries must help poorer countries achieve this.

Governor Visits

Article 3 (best interests of the child)

The best interests of the child must be a top priority in all things that affect children.

Health & Safety

Article 3 (best interests of the child)

The best interests of the child must be a top priority in all things that affect children.

Homework Policy

Article 29 (goals of education)

Education must develop every child's personality, talents and abilities to the full. It must encourage the child's respect for human rights, as well as respect for their parents, their own and other cultures, and the environment.

ICT Policy

Article 17 (access to information from mass media)

Every child has the right to reliable information from the media. This should be information that children can understand. Governments must help protect children from materials that could harm them.

LAC Policy

Article 3 (best interests of the child)

The best interests of the child must be a top priority in all things that affect children.

Article 12 (respect for the views of the child)

Every child has the right to say what they think in all matters affecting them, and to have their views taken seriously.

Article 20 (children deprived of a family)

If a child cannot be looked after by their family, governments must make sure that they are looked after properly by people who respect the child's religion, culture and language.

Learning Policy

Article 29 (goals of education)

Education must develop every child's personality, talents and abilities to the full. It must encourage the child's respect for human rights, as well as respect for their parents, their own and other cultures, and the environment.

Lunchtimes

Article 24 (health and health services)

Every child has the right to the best possible health. Governments must provide good quality health care, clean water, nutritious food and a clean environment so that children can stay healthy. Richer countries must help poorer countries achieve this.

Article 15 (freedom of association)

Every child has the right to meet with other children and to join groups and organisations, as long as this does not stop other people from enjoying their rights.

Missing Child

Article 3 (best interests of the child)

The best interests of the child must be a top priority in all things that affect children.

PE Policy

Article 15 (freedom of association)

Every child has the right to meet with other children and to join groups and organisations, as long as this does not stop other people from enjoying their rights.

RE Policy

Article 14 (freedom of thought, belief and religion)

Every child has the right to think and believe what they want and also to practise their religion, as long as they are not stopping other people from enjoying their rights. Governments must respect the rights of parents to give their children information about this right.

Resolving Issues

Article 3 (best interests of the child)

The best interests of the child must be a top priority in all things that affect children.

Safe Use of Internet

Article 3 (best interests of the child)

The best interests of the child must be a top priority in all things that affect children.

SEN Policy

Article 3 (best interests of the child)

The best interests of the child must be a top priority in all things that affect children.

Smoke Free

Article 3 (best interests of the child)

The best interests of the child must be a top priority in all things that affect children.

Article 24 (health and health services)

Every child has the right to the best possible health. Governments must provide good quality health care, clean water, nutritious food and a clean environment so that children can stay healthy. Richer countries must help poorer countries achieve this.

Transition Policy

Article 3 (best interests of the child)

The best interests of the child must be a top priority in all things that affect children.

-

Uncollected Child

Article 3 (best interests of the child)

The best interests of the child must be a top priority in all things that affect children.

